

On November, 5-7, 2019, All-Russia Congress of Teachers of the Russian language and literature took place in Moscow State University. The participants came from different regions of Russia, near and far abroad. The scientists focused on Russian philology in the system of modern humanitarian knowledge and technologies in teaching the Russian language and speech culture, reading literacy and the role of sociocultural sphere in forming language personality.

There were presented the reports of famous foreign scientists-members of the editorial board of the journal "Russian Language Studies": Doctor of Philology, Professor, Vice-President of the International Association of Teachers of Russian Language and Literature Dan E. Davidson (the USA), Doctor of Philology, Professor, presidium member of the International Association of Teachers of Russian Language and Literature Harry Walter (Germany), Doctor of Philology, Professor, presidium member of the International Association of Teachers of Russian Language and Literature Guzman Rafael Tirado (Spain).

On November, 6, 2019, in the Intellectual Centre – Fundamental Library of M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University the Second Session of the Association of Russian Literature took place. The plenary reports were presented by the Head of the Association His Holiness the Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia and the Deputy Head of the Society Rector of M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University Academician V.A. Sadovnichiy.

During the session the official ceremony of delivering the Prize of the Association “The best teacher of Russian literature” was held.

Doctor of Philology, Assistant Professor, assistant to the editor-in-chief of the journal “Russian Language Studies” E.N. Strelchuk took part in the ceremony.

