

Bratislava meetings, 2019: International Forum of Russian language specialists

On October, 23-25, 2019, International Forum of Russian language specialists was held in Bratislava, Slovakia. The main theme of the forum was “Language through culture – culture through language” (E.I. Passov). The event gathered more than 100 Russian language teachers from different European countries.

Five round tables were organised and held. The participants focused on actual problems of modern Russian language studies: new approaches to foreign language education, compiling textbooks and manuals in polycultural environment, digitalization of education, training Russian language teachers in different linguistic environments.

Each participant of Bratislava meetings could get acquainted with the current issue (№ 19) of the journal “Russian language in the centre of Europe”. The editor-in-chief of the journal is President of the Association of Slovak Russianists Professor Eva Kollarova.

